Construction Law: Review of the 10 Most Common Issues Related to AIA Contracts

ABOUT THE SEMINAR: This seminar will include owner recommendations for substantive language related to the 10 most common issues and is recommended for mid- level to senior paralegals with litigation, construction and/or transactional backgrounds. Specific topics include but are not limited to: Understanding AIA Provisions as they relate to the Withholding of Payments to the Contractor, What Other Contractual Elements of Final Payment Should be Addressed for Florida, Issuance of Changes, Substantial Completion, Dispute Resolution, Indemnification, Termination Provisions and Insurance Requirements.

SPEAKER: Allison Hunt is an associate in the Litigation Practice group of Greenberg Traurig, P.A., in Orlando, Florida. Ms. Hunt is LEED® AP certified and has previously co-presented Construction Contracts - Understanding AIA Provisions for the Florida Construction Law and Certification Review Course 2010. Her practice consists primarily of the drafting of AIA Design and Construction Contracts, construction defect and breach of contract litigation, administrative law, and general commercial litigation. She graduated cum laude from the University of Florida and received her law degree from University of Florida Levin College of Law.

A total of 2.0 hours of CLE credit from the National Association of Legal Assistants "NALA" has been awarded for this seminar.
